Habits form through repetition — usually 21–66 days on average. The hardest part is the first few weeks, don't quit early. Small daily actions compound into real change.

Consistency builds belief — in yourself and your business. Results come from what you do over and over, not once. It's easier to keep going than to keep restarting.

"No" doesn't mean never — it often just means not right now. People protect their comfort zones — it's not about you. Every "no" builds resilience and leads you closer to a "yes." No is part of the process , not a sign to stop.
